Democrats Strong In Arizona For 1960

The Democratic party of Arizona really is "up and at 'em" this year. Dinners have been given for the Honorable Harry S. Truman and Lindon Johnson (D. Texas). The Truman dinner drew 1,000 people at $50 a plate.

The next week Johnson drew 1,200 people at $10 a plate.

Proceeds of the two dinners, $62,000, were divided three ways — one-third county, one-third state and one-third national.

Al Parker to Address Parents Club Jan. 26

Al Parker, famous illustrator, will present a talk, "Behind the Scenes of the Magazines," at the Jan. 26 meeting of the Parents' Club at 8:00 p.m. in the multipurpose room of Tularcitos School.

Mr. Parker recently received an award for Distinctive Merit from the Society of Illustrators in New York City. This award, for his illustration for a story written by Daphne Du Maurier, "The Alibi," in the Ladies' Home Journal, is the "Oscar" of the illustration field.

In addition to his illustrations in the Ladies Home Journal (there is one of his in the January issue), he does work for Good Housekeeping, McCall's, Cosmopolitan, and other leading publications.

Mr. Parker will be introduced by cartoonist Frank O'Neal.

Hostesses for the meeting will be Mrs. Marian Crush and Mrs. Martha Huff.

Ray Wermuth of Carmel leads the Russian Wild Boar Derby in Carmel Valley with a 266½ pound field dressed pig shot before Christmas. Neil Selbecky of Pacific Grove is in second place with his trophy weighing in at 213 pounds field dressed, shot last week.

Nearly a dozen pigs have been registered and weighed in at the Stirrup Cup in Carmel Valley since Jan. 1. The rain and snow, which most avid boar hunters have been waiting for, has brought the surly beasts out in great numbers.

Hunters weighing in two pigs last Saturday, at 125 pounds each, reported seeing as many as 33 pigs in one group in open country in the Chews Ridge area, which is blanketed with several inches of snow.

Dean Wolter of the Stirrup Cup reports, "Most of the pigs brought in so far have been from the Los Padres Forest in the Chews Ridge area and the Lambert Ranch."

Rex White reports from Cachagua lots of fresh pig sign in the Danish and Rattlesnake Canyon areas. Hunters wishing accommodations in the Los Padres (Continued on Page 4)

Youth Journalism Contest Starts February 4th

Girls! Boys! Authors of Tomorrow!

Here is a new Journalism contest open to all young men and women in the Monterey Peninsula, 16 years of age and under. Here is a chance to test your powers of perception and imagination.

Fun for all! Prizes and local fame for the winners!

Every month a new picture will appear in the Carmel Valley Sun. STUDY IT WELL. Let your imagination begin to work. What 'story' do the objects in the picture suggest to you? Whatever it is, write it down in your best creative style.

You may write briefly of a whole story plot or of a single scene. Whichever you choose — remember — 200 words or less.

Entries will be judged on human interest and originality only. Of course, correct spelling, a colorful vocabulary, and legibility, will help us judge your entry more easily.

Entries may be typed or neatly hand written. Be sure to include your name, address, phone number if any, and age.

Every month, the winning contestant will receive a 'surprise' valuable gift and story publication. Second and third winners will receive honorable mention. At the end of the year, the 12 winners will re-write their entries into a short story of approximately 500 words, to compete for the year's Grand Prize. All 12 monthly winners will be invited to a gala dinner event, in a famous Peninsula restaurant. The year's winner will receive a beautiful "Oscar" engraved with "..... as winner of the Carmel Valley Sun's Journalism Contest." In addition, the winning story will be published and paid for at the rate of six cents per word. Engraved plaques will be given to second and third place winners.

The first picture of the contest will appear in the Feb. 4 issue of the Carmel Valley Sun with an entry blank.

This contest is open to the students of all Peninsula schools, and we invite teachers in the schools to contact the Sun for any information they would like to pass on to their journalism or English classes. You may call OL 9-4001 or write Box 357, Carmel Valley, Calif.

Judges' decision are final. All entries become the property of the Carmel Valley Sun and will not be returned.

Every contestant may submit as many entries as desired, but each entry must be mailed in a separate envelope. Address all entries to Youth Writers, c/o Carmel Valley Sun, Carmel Valley, Calif. All entries must be received not later than the 20th day of the competing month.

So — get busy. Sharpen your pencils and wits. Let your imagination soar — THEN write it down!

Kiwanis Installs Officers for 1960

The Kiwanis party at Reubens Saturday night was a smashing success. The head table was presided over by guests of honor Lt. Gov. Steven James and Mrs. James of Salinas. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Mummert, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. "Doc" Stanford of Carmel, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Allaire, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Brownell, Dr. E. P. Marcucci, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hitchcock, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Wilmot, Mr. and Mrs. John McGraw, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ingraham, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. "Buck" Raymond, Dr. C. Winter Van Horn, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Uzzell, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ricupero, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Burton, Paul Porter, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Erion, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Powers and Rex White.

Lt. Gov. James did the honors of installing all the new officers. Paul Porter presented presents to the officers of "59." Door prizes were awarded by our leading businessmen and nearly everyone "won" something!

Dick McKenzie, president of the Horsemen's Association, announced the choice of Mrs. W. L. Strongman of Schulte Road as publicity chairman for the year. You may reach her at MA 4-4722.

Hugo Hill

Well, what do you know. In our mail bag this week, we got a note from Herb Caen (otherwise known as "Mr. San Francisco") assuring Hugo that his quote about the movie, "Lovers," that was censored by a local daily newspaper, was "the first of this type." Senor Caen further adds, "thanks for adding such a sharp page to my scrap book." (Gee, Mr. S. F., don't thank us, Thank that editor with the blue pencil.) . . . Vitcor Rosen, of the beard (now shaved) and the monicle, used to be a very severe critic of the coffee served at the Hill. When it was not up to par, he would voice his complaint. Now with an automatic maker, what does Victor do? Why, simple. If the coffee's not right he — kicks the machine . . . Tirerim Axelbender says they should appoint Sophie the Ape, on the local art committee. Sophie is that Gorilla in the German zoo, who paints "impressionistic paintings." (One thing is for sure, Sophie doesn't monkey around with the palate.) . . . Mrs. Charles Hornblower, the Sun scribe, has sounded a sour note in his last column, in referring to Frank Sinatra as having no "obligations to their country or the human race." Sinatra's personal attitude to some of the public may be pretty bad, but he has just as many obligations, as Mr. Hornblower, and he fills them very well. As an actor, he is tops. He is one of the best singers in the business, and has starred in what can be termed a bunch of "gasers" as far as films go. Sinatra, Mr. Hornblower, has probably put in more long hours at the studio than you have "moralizing" at your typewriter. Here is a skinny kid, who made a terrific comeback, when all the columnists and writers were trying to bury the blade in his back. But despite all this, he came back. Sinatra's obligations are being handled pretty good, it would seem. Probably, the only reason his personal contact with some of the public is bad, is due to people who write nasty things about him . . . Now, to some nice things, like, "The Mouse That Roared." This is the prize comedy about a little country that goes to war with the US so they can lose, and thereby become rich. Only bad thing is, THEY WIN. It's in color, and stars Peter Sellers in three roles. (Shades of Alec Guinness.) and cute Jean Seberg. With this, we are showing a very heart warming short called, "The Golden Fish." In the same wonderful style as "Red Balloon" . . . Understand a large Texas hotel is going to lease some space for an ice box — Alaska! . . . This fellow Burrito's snide reference to the Hill putout, as a "kiddy car," is indeed an underhanded, and very vicious remark, derived from the fact that Burrito has been probably watching Jack Parr too much. The "kiddie car" is a Vespa, made in Italy, where they also make imported vests. The difference being in who wears what. There is no such reference in Italy, as to kiddie cars. Fiats, yes. Kiddies, no! This is a highly educated car, operating on the principal of a cement mixer and a cable car. Sometimes it uses gas, other times, Beer from the

The year started off with a huge bang and probably will get more hectic as it goes along. You'll find people you haven't seen for a couple of years, befriending you, calling up and "So glad to see you's" etc., etc., but don't be alarmed — it's only election year again. Most of the conversations overheard of late are about money. "First of the year blues" are in full swing. "Taxes are only going to be a 'little worse,'" "Won't feel it too much," said Gov. Pat Brown at the Democratic testimonial dinner for Senator Fred Farr. The only ones that have any worry about tax increases are the people that have money — this figures!! Seriously though, the while dinner was well prepared, well attended, and should do the Monterey County Democratic party proud. Some of the guests we managed to see were Supervisors Tom Hudson and Burt Talcott, Capt. Simmons of the CHP, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon of San Benancio Canyon — Mrs. Gordon represents her area on the M. Co. Planning Comm., Mr. Gordon is City Editor of the Salinas Californian. Mr. and Mrs. Allan Champe (Carmel Culligan Soft Water Service) were responsible for the table decorations and lovely they were. Others there included Mrs. Milton Frumkin (Saddle Mt. Ranch), Mr. and Mrs. Ed Mayfield (C. V. builder) and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Anderson, Mrs. Jeanette Ayers, Mrs. Frances Andrews (C. V. Advisory Board), Ken Sentnor, Dorothy Caton, Bessie Irvin, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Bowersox and Mr. and Mrs. Grant Fletcher (Pres. of Prop. Owners Assoc.) At our table also were Mr. and Mrs. Ephriam Doner of Big Sur, and Gov. Pat Brown's personal secretary. Dinner, of course, was chicken — a whole one — which leads me to say . . . Is this another "Chicken in the Pot" year for the Democrats? . . .

This last week has really been a busy one. Marlinde's Press Party brought some of the nicest people from our area together — Dr. and Mrs. Orner of Carmel Pt., Admiral and Mrs. Forsythe, representatives of radio and the press were there to meet the guests of honor, Indian Dancers Sujata and Asoka, who will perform, one night only, Saturday, Jan. 23, 8:30 p.m., Sunset Auditorium, Carmel. You may get your tickets from Central Box Office or Browse Around Shop in Carmel. Don't miss this delightful couple — they are exquisite! . . . Marlinde, perfect as ever, had a lovely buffet for everyone. The time was also right to announce the plans of a complete Art School for the Peninsula area, but you'll hear more of that else-but you'll hear more of that in the near future . . .

Welcome New Valleyites: Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Wickham and daughter Rhonda of El Cammito Rd. moved right in and promptly took a trip to Long Beach for a couple of days. Mr. Wickham plans to open an auto parts shop in the area . . . Mr. and Mrs. Dale Parker and seven-months-old son recently moved into Robles del Rio from Los Angeles. Mr. Parker is

The BOY SCOUTS of AMERICA

TROOP 127

Sponsor
C. V. Kiwanis Club

The C. V. Chamber of Commerce and the C. V. Kiwanis Club sponsor two of the finest groups of young men of our area. The boy scouts have traditionally held the respect and admiration of parents and communities everywhere. Carmel Valley groups are no exception! Under the able guidance of Robert Ray Scoutmaster troop 127, and Frank Preve, Scoutmaster troop 140, they have made their part in community affairs important beyond their age group. Below is a list of activities planned for Troop 127 this year: Jan. 22-23 — Jack's camp (1/4 mile from Carmel Valley Post Office) . . . Rainy weather camp . . . Feb. 6 — Carmel Valley road cleanup . . . 12 miles total . . . approximately one mile per Scout . . . Troop good turn to commemorate National Boy Scout week . . . Feb. 27-28 — Pinnacles National Monument . . . west slopes . . . overnight camp . . . April 2-3 — Hanging Valley wilderness camp . . . out of Arroyo Seco . . . Hike in camp . . . round trip seven miles . . . May 14-15 — Half dome in Yosemite National Park . . . June 25-26 — Beach camp over-nighter . . . Big Sur or Watsonville area . . . July 30-31 — Hiking . . . Wilderness camp ground . . . China camp to Los Padres Dam . . . Sept. 17-18 — Big Pines wilderness camping . . . Los Padres Dam to Palo Colorado Canyon.

Sponsor
Chamber of Commerce

The Chamber of Commerce sponsors troop 140, which is now two years old. Scoutmaster Frank Preve' gives his time devotedly to these 14 boys and their many projects. Some of these projects include, the practice of soil conservation along the C. V. river, lower C. V. road cleanup campaigns, and most recently, cleaning up the yard of Children's House. Spring theme for the Scout-O-Rama will be outdoor cooking and smoking and jerking meat.

Troop 140 meets once a week at the H. G. Gamble property. The Gambles have generously donated the use of one of their buildings to the boys. Selling Christmas trees at Luis Wolters Market and doing yard work of all kinds help the Scouts pay their dues and camping expenses. The boys recently spent a week end in San Francisco.

Troop roster 140 . . . David Preve', Richard Meadows, Douglas Meadows, Peter Gamble, Milton Frumkin, Chris Marvin, David Marvin, Stewart McKenzie, Kevin Sharee, Robert Sinclair, Frank Cowan, Bart Krouse, John Otter and Larry Leslie.

The pictures at the right show troop 127 on their annual hike up Half-Dome Mountain (8,852 ft.), in Yosemite. Troop 140 is in preparation for the same climb in the near future, and is busy making snowshoes, etc., to cope with the winter weather.

Scouting has been, and always will be, one of the finest ways of developing the youth of our country, but any group is only as good as it's leadership. Frank Preve' and Bob Ray have devoted years of time and effort to our Valley boys, bringing honor to them.

Bob Ray has never stinted in his devotion to troop 127, and it is with deepest regret that he cannot continue in his role as Scoutmaster. Mr. Ray feels and hopes some other father will be found, who can continue the guidance of these young minds into the wholesome activities of being a Boy Scout. Any man interested in leading troop 127 may contact either Bob Ray or Lou Gardner (chairman of the Scouts Blue Skies Lodge).

Boar Hunt

Dam or Prince's Camp area may rent cabins from Rex White at Prince's Camp. Weather — clear and cold with some snow in the upper hills.

Bill Lambert at Jamesburg says, "Wild boar are out of hiding and moving around — lots of sign below the snow levels, weather clear and cold with as much as 14" of snow in the upper hills. The pigs are now fat and in good shape with much sign of from 10 to 12 pigs per litter."

Bill spotted some mountain lion tracks on top of pig tracks and a dead deer, probably killed by the same lion, about two miles from his Jamesburg ranch house. The snow and a fondness for pork may be pushing cats to the lower levels. Hunting parties are scheduled for late January and early February. If interested in an early hunt, there may be an opportunity to get in on one of these special hunting parties.

This was a very poor pigeon season. They must have by-passed Carmel Valley this year because a few good "shoots" were reported around Nacimiento Dam. There was plenty of feed and good weather here. The reason they didn't settle into the Valley is still unknown.

Joe Hitchcock writes....

I have before me an article the title of which is "Come to the Hanging." "Issued by the Sheriff's Office, County of Santa Clara, San Jose, March 16, 1875, To Dr. F. W. James. Sir: Pursuant to the Statute in such cases you are hereby invited to be present at the execution of Tiburcio Vasquez at the jail of Said County, in San Jose, on the 19th of March, A.D. 1875 at 1:30 o'clock P.M. Present at Jail Entrance. Not Transferable . . . J. H. Adams, Sheriff."

This coming March 16 will be 85 years since this hanging will have taken place. In a recent Salinas paper an article appears which tells of the passing of a man 77 years old who hid from Vasquez. If this man was 77 years old, he was born about 1883 or about eight years after the execution of Tiburcio Vasquez and after his followers were no more in evidence. I will admit my arithmetic is not the best, but I will leave it to you to help me out.

Every once in a while someone comes up saying that he once spoke to Vasquez or that he remembers him and if the truth is known, these people are younger than I. My father, who was born in 1856, said that once as a small boy he saw him in the Valley when he came to visit his brother, Antonio Maria Vasquez. The trouble with our history is that so much has been lost but still their are official and legal records which fortunately have been kept and which help at this later date.

As an afterthought, I want to thank my many friends and well wishers who so generously made my birthday a pleasant one with a dinner, and also for the many cards and presents. I will say that according to the records, I was born Jan. 9 at 5:00 a.m. 1881, but too late to know Tiburcio Vasquez.

A man takes a drink, then the drink takes a drink, and the next drink takes the man.

About this time of the year most gardens look just about the way I feel when I first wake up in the morning.

This is a good time to look around and decide what to do with some of the worst areas. Often the use of some striking evergreen shrubs, especially the conifers, as the Blue Pfitzer Juniper with its cheerful grey-blue color, can help relieve this winter monotony.

There are a few shrubs like the Camellia, Heather, Australian Sweet Pea bush and others that bloom through the dead of winter.

Many gardens have been severely hit by frost. It is important to treat these plants properly. Do not cut off the frozen parts until new growth starts in the spring. Many of the plants are unable to heal properly until then and will "bleed" if cut during the winter months. The leaves, even though frozen, help shade the plant from any hot early spring sun and so shade the plants from sunburning.

Do not feed frozen plants until they start to grow vigorously this spring.

Don't forget, now is the best time to pick out and plant bare root roses, fruit trees, deciduous ornamental trees, and many other items as artichokes, strawberries, etc., from your local nursery.

Many bedding plants put out now will give you a fine display late this winter or in early spring. Among these are the Ranunculus, Pansies, Violas, Primulas, etc.

TOUCHE --

So many accidents are happening on a certain portion of the Carmel Valley Road, that it may become known as 'The Last Mile'.

Art, like morality, consists in drawing the line somewhere . . . G.K.C.

There are more fools in the world than there are knaves, otherwise the knaves could not exist.—Bulwer.

Carmel Valley boasts of Sunshine and fine weather but a few days ago, it had one 'hail of a storm'.

The next war will not determine who's right, but who's left.—Fletcher.

Of all the things in the world, the softest—a woman's lips; the sharpest—a woman's tongue; the coldest—a woman's scorn; the warmest—a woman's love; the loveliest—a woman's eyes; the most annoying—a woman's spending. Who said this was a man's world?

There should be as little merit in loving a woman for her beauty, as a man for his prosperity, both being equally subject to change.—Pepe.

Humor began with man. In the beginning, God created man. Then He ribbed him, and created woman. Since then, woman has been ribbing man.

BE THERE

An OPEN HOUSE DINNER will be held at the new Education Bldg. of the Community Chapel on Saturday, Jan. 23. There will be two sittings — 5:30 and 6:30 — with a 200 persons limit. If you do not receive tickets in the mail, they may be secured at the General Store from Lucy Valpy at $2.00 per plate. The dinner is sponsored by the Chapel Guild and managed by Kathleen Wood of Robles del Rio Lodge. All departments of the church will participate. All the food is being donated and the monies collected will go to the building fund. A silver offering will be taken at the dinner. The general public is cordially invited to attend.

Dr. Grant Fletcher Heads Property Owners

At its meeting on Jan. 18 the Board of Directors of the Association went on record as opposing any change in the restrictions placed by the County Zoning Ordinance on outdoor advertising. Billboards are allowed only in commercial and industrial districts, subject to first securing a use permit from the Planning Commission. The question will be before the Planning Commission on the 26th, as outdoor advertising interests are attempting to have the ordinance amended to permit billboards in other areas. Signs are permitted on C-1, C-2 or M zoned property.

A letter was written to the Bank of America to please preserve the trees on their new property and to design for the rural atmosphere of our Valley.

Future plans for the Community Center were discussed as to Crosby fund help. A pool will cost around $50,000.

Committee memberships were also discussed.

Mr. McCulloch of Bay Furniture in Seaside wants to enlarge the Valley Nursery and sell patio and lawn furniture on a non-conforming property.

POTLUCK DINNER FEB. 5 C. V. COMMUNITY CHAPEL

A potluck dinner is set Friday, Feb. 5 at 6:00 p.m. in the new religious education building of the Carmel Valley Community Chapel. All parents and children are invited and each family will bring a dish — either hot, salad or dessert. Baby sitting service will be provided after the dinner and films will be shown for the older children in the Chapel while parents and teachers are meeting.

First in a series of regular quarterly meetings for the mothers of pre-kindergarten and kindergarten children was held Monday evening. The purpose of the meeting was to acquaint the mothers with the aims of the kindergarten teachers and give the quarterly booklet, "Growing," to each mother.

Fireman of The Week

RICHARD MCKENZIE is our Fireman of the Week and is Captain of Co. No. 2 with 11 men in his crew. Dick joined the department in January of 1953, making this month his seventh anniversary as a Volunteer Fireman and member of the First Aid crew. Dick is foreman on the Hank Ketcham Ranch in Robles where he and his wife reside. Mrs. McKenzie is a nurse at the Monterey Hospital. They do not have any children at present but are expecting in August of 1960. The men of the department say that "Dick does a fine job," never seeking acclaim, but always willing to give aid if he sees a job to do.

teacher, was injured was well handled by Capt. Simmons of the CHP, who was returning home from the Democratic dinner for Sen. Fred Farr. He administered first aid and was so quietly reassuring in his manner, that Dick was off to the hospital and a quick recovery in no time at all. . . . Speaking of accidents, Lou Ebert suggests that those of us who travel the C. V. Road or the Grade often, in the course of business, should carry first aid equipment: blankets, flares and above all, flashlights for night driving. . . . His plans are in more detail than mentioned, so perhaps some of our citizens will get in touch with Lou, Hugh Irwin (First Aid) and Chief Valniza. Maybe we might have a "Jeep Posse." If any of you are seriously interested, no doubt Capt. Simmons of CHP and Sheriff's Deputy Johnny Johansen would help also. There are also First Aid classes at the Fire House you can attend. . . .

"Our Girl" Merle (Sellers) had a dinner party Saturday for about 50 teenagers — the occasion was a joint celebration for her and Judy Draper of Carmel. Bill and Alice Sellers really turned out a wonderfully arranged party for these youngsters. . . . Joe Hitchcock's birthday party also was lots of fun. He is such a grand gentleman, it's a real honor to even know him. Doc Purple gave Joe a little gift of "pills," no less, guaranteed to cure most anything including Milestones!!!

By Ford is planning a motel behind the Airway Village. It will be from eight to 15 units, depending upon cost. . . . Missed Barbara Porter at the Kiwanis Dinner. She's been having a touch of the flu. . . . Mrs. Philip Walker entertained houseguests from Denver, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Rockwell and son. Mrs. Walker and Mrs. Clinton have been friends even since 1934. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Spring are moving to the Valley. Their new home on Paso Hondo will be finished around April. Cecil owns the Las Tiendas Barber Shop on Del Monte Ave. in Monterey. Mel Mark is the builder for our incoming neighbors. . . . John Gardiner's Tennis Ranch last Tuesday was the setting for an informal dinner party given by the John Konigshofers of Carmel. Guests of honor were Dr. and Mrs. Cary Middlecoff and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Crowley of the Sheraton Hotel chain. Both gentlemen are to be in the Crosby golf tournament. Other guests were Mr. Jack Kramer and Mr. Frank Albert, tournament entrants, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Butts, tournament entrant, Mrs. Ralph Hammonds and the Jimmy Hatlos of Pebble Beach, and Dr. Brownell of Carmel. . . . Los Laureles Lodge is host to quite a few visitors for the golf tournament. The Bryan Bonnington Lumber Co. of San Francisco is hosting it for 20 couples. Friends of the Brooks visiting the Lodge are Mr. and Mrs. Tully and Mr. and Mrs. McMurray (Fred?). The Messrs. Neward and McBride who pilot the Firestone family planes are here for a quick visit. The Greens, Ellens and Lanes are in from Susan, Calif. . . . You can easily find Dr. S. Maus Purple's mail box — No! — it isn't trimmed in gilt letters, in fact there isn't a name on it — just a nice Wild Purple — post and all. . . . The Della Union will add steaks and chops to their menu along with all the other savory dishes they now serve. . . .

LETTERS to the EDITOR

RR 1, Box 483A

Lahaina, Maui, Hawaii

Dear Friends:

Just that you see that we have not forgotten you on our enchanted island, we'd like to drop you a line and say "Hello" hoping that you and all our Valley friends had a very happy holiday season and got well into the new year.

After six weeks in Honolulu we finally made it to Maui and are now happily installed in a little, very comfortable, rented house by the sea, since our own place has been rented for a year. We are living the life of an Hawaiian Reilly and love every around-the-world trip, stopped in San Francisco for dinner at Ernie's with the Al Parkers, who gave an "artist's" (not cook's) tour of the City. . . . Les Hannah has sold the "So Help Me Hannah" property to a Mr. Reardon of San Francisco. This property is zoned light industry — What will go up there next? . . . Jack Loesel of the General Store back from a visit with his parents in Pennsylvania. . . . Mrs. J. M. Weber of St. Louis flew in on the 9th for a two-week stay with Lt. Comm. K. J. Weber, her son, and wife. Lt. Comm. Weber is just back from a two-year hitch in the Philippines and is now attached to the Navy School for a business management course. . . .

minute of it. We arrived here on New Years Eve to escape any further parties in Honolulu and were immediately asked to a big LUANU at the Pioneer Hotel in Lahaina in honor of a 75-year-old "TUTU" (grandmother) who got this Luau as a surprise party from her foster daughters. The guests were mostly Hawaiians, and the sumptuous Hawaiian meal was accompanied by Ukulele players, singers, a bass fiddle player and hula dancing. It was lots of fun and was later continued in the bar of the hotel until way after midnight. So far we have only been able to have dinner by ourselves once at home; otherwise we have been invited by these lovely, hospitable island people every night.

The weather has been fine, not like last winter, and if it rains, it does it nicely at night and the mornings are fresh and sunny again. We are swimming a lot and playing golf; besides I am trying to write my book about Hawaii which should be ready in March, but the way it is going, I don't see how it can be done by then.

We miss the C. V. SUN and would like to know more about the goings on at home. Drop us a line with some gossip.

We are sending you and all our Valley friends fond alohas.

Cordially,

Ollie and Herb Brook

Leo Burdett got the green light from the Planning Commission on the rest home idea; however, Ed Haber has run into a little trouble with the County over roads. The gravel he planned to trade to the Carmel Hill Interchange builders, deal is off. And the County says "No" on the road improvements, till it's brought up to specifications . . . May mean an outlay of $20,000 for Ed, who just stocked the dairy farm with 2,500 head of cattle . . . Open House For Community Chapel Jan. 23

AND SILVER OFFERING DINNER

Jan. 23 will be the date for an Open House and dinner at the new Community Chapel Educational building. The dinner is under the direction of Mrs. William Wood of Robles del Rio Lodge and will be served twice during the evening — at 5:30 p.m. and again at 6:30 p.m. Short movies will be shown through the dinner hour. Those of you who did not receive tickets in the mail can purchase them from Miss Lucy Valpey at the General Store. All proceeds to go to the church building fund, as the food was donated. Everyone is invited. The dinner is $2.00 per person plus a silver offering.

Special thanks goes to the following ladies who have worked to make this Open House a success: Mrs. Charles Richmond, ticket chairman; serving to be done by the ladies of the Chapel Guild under Mrs. Guy Babcock; table decorations by Candlelight Guild under Mrs. Don Waylett; coffee, Mrs. Joseph Carter; publicity, Mrs. B. C. McKiernon; Mrs. Walter Barclay helping in a supervisory capacity in the new kitchen; hospitality, Board of Trustees under Mrs. Ruth Holm; clean-up work, Mrs. John Cox.
